The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

The liturgy and the readings today focus on Christ's gift of himself in the Eucharist, and specifically Christ's abiding presence in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Christ shares himself with us in the most intimate possible way; we are sustained and nourished by his true Body and Blood. When we come forward in the Communion Procession at Mass we are coming to receive our Lord and not a mere symbol that makes us "think about" or "remember" Jesus. Our belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist is central to what we believe. The receiving of communion is the most important thing we do in our spiritual journey.

This feast is especially important to us here at St. Bartholomew Parish this year. Bishop Olsen has asked that the Blessed Sacrament be placed in the body of the Church and plans are being made to accomplish this. He desires that people have a renewed understanding of Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist and he further hopes that people will come into all parishes to pray before and worship the Blessed Sacrament. Because we believe that Christ remains present in the consecrated host it is proper to truly "worship" the Blessed Sacrament: it is the very presence of Christ himself. Replacing the Blessed Sacrament in the body of the Church will give renewed meaning to our celebration of Mass and will strengthen the prayer life of us all.

Having the Blessed Sacrament in the Church reminds us first and foremost that our primary purpose at Mass is to worship God and to give thanks for all He has done for us. We are also reminded that the Church is a sacred and holy place. In our secularized world it is hard for people to remember that any particular place is "special" or "different." There is not a lot of difference between going to Walmart or Home Depot and going into Church in the eyes of many people. We need to be reminded that some things are special—some things are sacred. Our behavior bespeaks our inner disposition or belief. This is why we genuflect to the tabernacle and maintain quiet inside Church. Respect for the Blessed Sacrament and silence remind us of an essential truth—Christ is the center of attention, not us.

Solemnidad de El Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo

La liturgia y las lecturas de hoy se centran en el don de Cristo, Don de sí mismo en la Eucaristía y específicamente en la presencia permanente de Cristo en el Santísimo Sacramento. Cristo se da a nosotros de la manera más íntima posible; somos sustentados y nutridos por su Cuerpo y Sangre verdaderos. Cuando nos presentamos en la Procesión de Comunión en la Misa, estamos yendo a recibir a nuestro Señor y no un mero símbolo que nos hace "pensar" o "recordar" a Jesús. Nuestra creencia en la Presencia Real de Cristo en la Eucaristía es fundamental para lo que creemos. La recepción de la comunión es lo más importante que hacemos en nuestro viaje espiritual.

Esta solemnidad es especialmente importante para nosotros aquí en la parroquia de Saint Bartholomew este año. El Obispo Olson ha pedido que el Santísimo Sacramento sea colocado en el Santuario de la Iglesia y se están haciendo planes para lograrlo. El desea que la gente tenga una comprensión renovada de la Presencia Real de Cristo en la Eucaristía y la esperanza de que la gente venga a todas las parroquias para orar antes de la celebración y adorar al Santísimo Sacramento. Porque creemos que Cristo permanece presente en la Hostia consagrada, es propio adorar verdaderamente al Santísimo Sacramento: es la presencia real de Cristo mismo. Llevar el Santísimo Sacramento al Santuario de la Iglesia dará un significado renovado a nuestra celebración de la Misa y fortalecerá la vida de oración de todos nosotros.

Tener el Santísimo Sacramento en el Santuario de la Iglesia nos recuerda en primer lugar que nuestro propósito primordial en la Misa es adorar a Dios y dar gracias por todo lo que Él ha hecho por nosotros. También se nos recuerda que la Iglesia es un lugar sagrado y santo. En nuestro mundo secularizado es difícil para la gente recordar que cualquier lugar en particular es "especial" o "diferente". A los ojos de mucha gente, no hay mucha diferencia entre ir a Walmart o Home Depot y entrar al Templo. Tenemos que recordar que algunas cosas son especiales—algunas cosas son sagradas. Nuestro comportamiento expresa nuestra disposición interior o creencia, devoción. Por eso nos inclinamos hacia el tabernáculo y mantenemos el silencio adentro del Templo. El respeto al Santísimo Sacramento y el silencio nos recuerdan una verdad esencial: Cristo es el centro de atención, no nosotros.
