Fr. Karl Reflection

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves.
For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

This portion of today's Gospel reading is often referenced when people experience hardship or difficulty in life. As human beings living in a world that is touched by Original Sin we often have difficult experiences—life can be painful and sad. Although we have joyful and happy moments in life, and thank God for them, we usually remember the other times. Often the Gospel challenges us to follow Christ faithfully while willingly carrying our own cross. We are told to joyfully accept our suffering. So how do we come to find “rest from our burdens” in Christ? How is the yoke of Christ easy?

This passage from the Gospel according to Matthew refers to the life of the Christian who has begun to understand that their hope is in God alone. We experience the “yoke of Christ” as easy only when we trust God. In the real world, in our day-to-day lived experience, this realization comes and goes. There are moments when peace is absent—usually when we try to control things ourselves. When we trust in God's providence we know the peace and hope that come from Christ alone.

Jesus who understands us perfectly is always patient. He knows that there are moments when we are fearful and try to control everything; usually when we are afraid. When fear subsides it is possible to trust God and experience peace. The Good News is that our ever-patient God wants us to experience peace.

Decimocuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga, yo los aliviare.
Tomen mi yugo sobre ustedes y aprendan de mí, que soy manso y humilde de corazón, y encontraran descanso, porque mi yugo es suave y mi carga ligera”.

Esta parte de la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, a menudo se refiere a cuando la gente experimenta momentos difíciles en la vida. Como seres humanos viviendo en un mundo que es tocado por el Pecado Original, a menudo tenemos experiencias difíciles, la vida puede ser dolorosa y triste. Aunque tenemos momentos alegres y felices en la vida, y gracias a Dios por ellos, usualmente recordamos los otros momentos. A menudo, el Evangelio nos desafía a seguir a Cristo fielmente mientras llevamos voluntariamente nuestra propia cruz. Se nos dice que aceptemos con alegría nuestro sufrimiento. Entonces, ¿Cómo podemos encontrar en Cristo “descanso de nuestras cargas”? ¿Cómo es que el yugo de Cristo es fácil?

Este pasaje del Evangelio según Sn. Mateo se refiere a la vida del cristiano que ha empezado a entender que su esperanza está solamente en Dios. Y experimentamos que el “yugo de Cristo” es tan fácil sólo cuando confiamos en Dios. En el mundo real, en nuestra experiencia cotidiana vivida cada día, esta comprensión va y viene. Hay momentos en que la paz está ausente, por lo general es cuando nosotros mismos tratamos de controlar las cosas. Cuando confiamos en la providencia de Dios, conocemos la paz y la esperanza que provienen únicamente de Cristo.

Jesús que nos entiende perfectamente, siempre es paciente. Él sabe que hay momentos en los que estamos temerosos y tratamos de controlarlo todo; generalmente pasa cuando tenemos miedo. Cuando el miedo desaparece, es posible confiar en Dios y experimentar la paz. La Buena Nueva es que nuestro Dios, siempre paciente, quiere que experimentemos la paz.
