Fr. Karl Reflection

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

I would like to announce several things that will be happening here at St. Bartholomew Parish in the coming months.

New Staff:

Most people are aware that Sister Rafaela has been recalled by her order and has entered much-deserved retirement. Sister is a person of great faith and her presence in the parish was a source of blessing for many people: she will be missed. Her order has assigned another sister to work here at St. Bartholomew. Sister Edid Torres will arrive in the second week of August. Sister is bilingual and will be involved in many activities; religious education, adult formation, baptism classes, etc. I am sure she will be a source of blessing for many.

Joel De Loera is joining the St. Bartholomew staff effective August 1. He will serve in a new job title, Director of Formation. He will be responsible for overseeing and coordinating and directing all formation in the parish; both for children and adults. Joel is very interested in formation for those involved with teaching. He will work closely with the pastor. He is moving from Oklahoma City and will be living in Fort Worth, hopefully, by September 1st. Joel is perfectly bilingual. He has completed a master's degree in Theology and will be a tremendous help in the parish.

Mass change:

Starting in the first week of September the 12:10 Mass on Thursday will be moved to Thursday evening at 7:00 and will be celebrated in Spanish. As I am sure most people are aware more than 40 % of people coming to Mass at St. Bartholomew are Spanish-speaking. This Mass will afford the Spanish-speaking community the opportunity to attend daily Mass. Also there will be opportunities for adult formation classes, offered in Spanish, to follow Mass. Everyone is welcome at this Mass—it might be a nice chance to brush up on your high school Spanish.

Decimoséptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Me gustaría anunciar varias cosas que estarán ocurriendo en los próximos meses aquí en la parroquia de St Bartholomew.

Personal nuevo:

La mayoría de las personas se han dado cuenta que la hermana Rafaela ha sido llamada por su Orden y ha recibido su jubilación, muy merecida. La Hermana Rafaela es una persona de gran fe y su presencia en la parroquia fue una fuente de bendición para muchas personas; se le extrañara. Su orden ha asignado a otra hermana a trabajar aquí en St Bartholomew. La Hermana Edid Torres llegará en la segunda semana de agosto. La hermana es bilingüe y participará en muchas actividades; Educación religiosa, formación de adultos, clases de bautismo, etc. Estoy seguro de que será una fuente de bendición para muchos.

Joel De Loera se unirá al personal de St Bartholomew a partir del 1 de agosto. Servirá en un nuevo puesto de trabajo como Director de Formación. Él será responsable de supervisar, coordinar y dirigir toda la formación en la parroquia; tanto para niños como para adultos. Joel está muy interesado en la formación para aquellos involucrados con la enseñanza. Trabjará en estrecha colaboración con el pastor. Él se mudará de la ciudad de Oklahoma y vivirá en Fort Worth, confiamos sea antes del 1 de septiembre. Joel es perfectamente bilingüe. Ha completado una maestría en Teología y será una tremenda ayuda en la parroquia.

Cambio: horario de misa:

A partir de la primera semana de septiembre, la Misa de las 12:10 del jueves se cambiará al jueves por la noche a las 7:00 pm y se celebrará en español. Puesto que estoy seguro de que la mayoría de las personas son conscientes de que más del 40% de las personas que vienen a misa en St. Bartholomew son de habla hispana. Esta Misa ofrecerá a la comunidad de habla hispana la oportunidad de asistir a la Misa diaria. También habrá oportunidades para clases de formación de adultos ofrecidas en español, después de la Misa. Todos son bienvenidos a esta Misa, para quienes hablan ingles o son bilingües esta es una buena oportunidad para repasar el español aprendido en la preparatoria.
